

You can complete the tasks in any order or follow the grid.	Monday Watch today's episode of Newsround. https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround Before you start to watch think about these questions: Choose a story – how did it make you feel? What did you learn? What else would you like to learn about the story? Chat to someone in your house about your answers to these questions.	Tuesday Choose a language that you don't know how to speak. Can you find out how to say some words in that language? Use Google Translate to help you. You can choose which words to learn but here are some ideas: "Hello", "Goodbye", "Thank you" and "Please".	Wednesday The month of June is "Gypsy, Roma and Traveller History Month". To help you learn more about their lives watch the video below: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1bhBbMrF8Z0 Can you write down three things you have learned from watching the video?	Thursday June is also a month for celebrating all different types of love and families. Listen to the story "And Tango Makes Three" by Justin Richardson. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4uOXUCiDE-s In "And Tango Makes Three" we see families of penguins who love each other. There are all different types of families, and each family is special. Can you draw and label a picture of the people who are in your family?	Friday Listen to the story "Whoever You Are" by Mem Fox. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MugWfjAyoiw Talk to someone in your house about what you think the author's key message is. Using the story to help you, create a list of ways that we are the same and of ways that we are different. No two people are exactly the same, that's what makes us unique! Can you think of a way in which you are special?
